

Public Wood

Public Wood, designed by Anderssen & Voll, features a sleek and modern seat shell available in a wide color palette in polypropylene, or with a recycled shell from our Ocean palette.

The chair is delivered with a wooden base in oak or ash. Public is both comfortable and elegant, making it suitable for a wide range of applications.

Public Wood can be supplied with upholstery on both seat and back, or fully upholstered in Capture fabric from Gabriel. The chair is not stackable but can be suspended on dedicated tabletop hooks for efficient cleaning and storage.
